Never Run Out At The Elgin Public Library

by Ralph Howell

The Elgin Public Library Board will again sponsor a Donated Book Sale, to be held this year on June 17th during Riverfest. The proceeds of the sale will be designated for the library's Children's Services. When you do your spring cleaning, please remember the Donated Book Sale and bring any useable, good condition books to the library. (No encyclopedias, condensed books or textbooks, please - they are difficult to sell.)

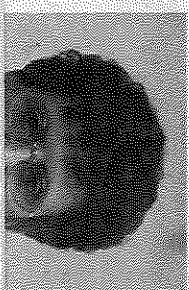

Last year's sale was very successful, raising over $200 which enabled the library to receive a Libri Grant of $1,050 in new children's books.

child appropriate programs for use in the library, end-of-year class visits for the schools, a 2-month Summer Reading Program with activity packets, games and awards, parenting books and parenting internet sites.

In addition, many other services are available at the Elgin Public Library, including: two Internet public use computers at no charge except for printouts, a public use computer for use with the library's extensive CD-ROM collection and for word processing, an audio listening center, a public copy machine (10 cents per page), state library information for the visually handicapped, interlibrary loan access, a web reference link to Eastern Oregon University, and a list of useful Internet sites.

Elgin Public Library offers many children's services, including: two Preschool Story Times hosted by the staff and volunteers each month, two children's computers with a

With all the services available, you will NEVER RUN OUT OF INFORMATION at the ELGIN PUBLIC LIBRARY.
